"...The family is, so to speak, the domestic church. In it parents should, by their word and example, be the first preachers of the faith to their children; ..." (Lumen Gentium)

The Church teaches that the parent/guardian is the primary teacher of the faith to their children. Our Faith Formation Team is committed to supporting and assisting parents in this task, and thus invites parental participation and commitment. We ask parents to sign a commitment statement to formalize this relationship. Please complete the "Parent/Guardian Participation Commitment" form below. Active involvement by parents/guardians and other adults in the faith formation program will help all of us grow toward the vision of lifelong faith formation, which is encouraged by the Catholic Church. This formation includes:

- transforming the parish community into a community of disciples of Jesus Christ
- engaging all generations in the communal life of the Church
- equipping and supporting families in creating a Catholic way of life
